

1 JUDGE WARNKEN: I raise the question. I
2 haven't looked into it. I only raise it because I think
3 that is important, and I would like this comment. I
4 would make this comment. I think the effectiveness of 5 this proposed addition to our laws is not in how many 6 cases are tried but to have somebody, some commission or 7 something to which complaints can be made and be able 8 through the commission to contact the judge. In other 9 words, the power to do that is a salutary one, which 10 will get more results than the hearings that will be con-
11 ducted by anybody, even the Court of Appeals or anybody
12 else. That is precisely what happened in California. I 13 am thoroughly familiar with that. I might mention, in-
14 cidentally, that the Federal Government, Senator Tydings'
15 Committee, is going into that very subject with respect
16 to Federal judges, and I have been asked to come over 17 this Thursday and testify about our Maryland Plan which 18 they learned about.

19 I don't want to go into it in any detail. I
20 just throw that out to you. It ought to be set up in such 21 a way that it can have that salutary effect of disciplining
